New York City.

Dear Sir:

Have you anyone in your House from Ceylon who can read Singhalese and who possibly knows a little of Singhalese art? I have a few inscriptions I would like to get read. If you could send somebody up to see us any week day I would appreciate it. It would be well to have the person notify me first, telephone Audubon 3-4141. We naturally would pay them for any labor involved.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG

Attention: Mr. Wood

My dear Mr. Wood:

We tried our best to secure a Ceylonese gentleman who could translate, but we failed to secure anyone. However, you may correspond with Dr. A. K. Maraswamy, curator of the Far Eastern Division, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. He is from Ceylon.

Sincerely yours,

H K Rakhit
